

FRANCIS J. DALY

Frank Daly is a Kallman Executive Fellow at the Center for Business Ethics at Bentley University. Prior to his retirement, he was the executive in charge of the day-to-day operation of the ethics program at a major American aerospace company, a $30 billion Fortune 100 corporation. He was the officer responsible for planning, directing and executing the ethics program for the company's 125,000 employees.

Frank has also served as a board member and chair of the Ethics and Compliance Officer Association (now part of the Ethics & Compliance Initiative). He was a member of the Working Group of the Defense Industry Initiative on Business Ethics and Conduct (DII) and a founder of the Southern California Business Ethics Roundtable.

Frank has written and presented frequently on the topic of business ethics. He has served on the Managing Ethics in Organizations faculty and was a part-time faculty member at the College of Business Administration at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles. Frank and Carl Oliver coauthored Business Ethics: The Path to Certainty, which was published in 2013.

Frank recently returned to ministry as a Catholic priest and is currently pastor of Our Lady of Sorrows Parish in Sharon, MA
