

New! Bentley History and Business Speaker Series

Inaugural Session

Liberalism at Large: The World According to the Economist

A Joint History and Economics Seminar

Alexander Zevin
CUNY Staten Island

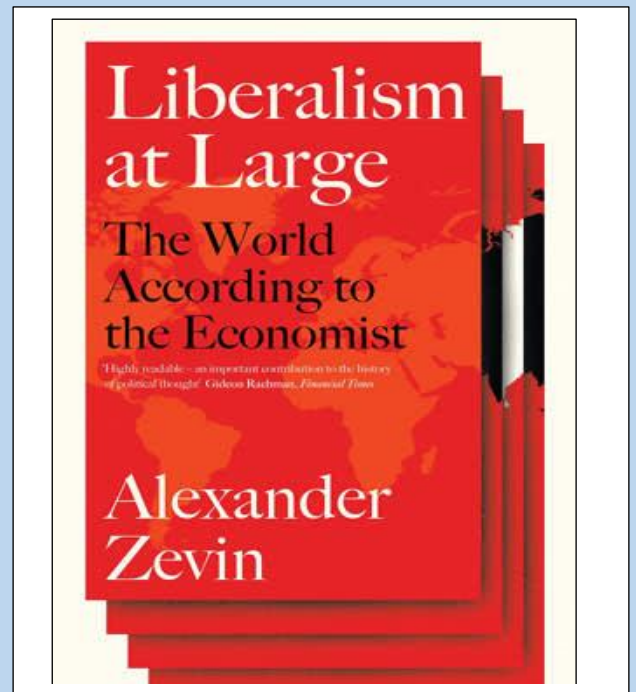

February 5, 2020

Morison 300 (Board Room)

12:00 P.M. – 2:00 P.M.

Lunch provided!

RSVP: cweiser@bentley.edu

Liberalism at Large questions the triumphalism of one of the most internationally influential magazines, The Economist, and explores the role it has played in championing “liberal values.”

--Pankaj Mishra, The New Yorker:

“Zevin, having mastered the magazine’s archives, commands a deep knowledge of its inner workings and historical connection to political and economic power.”

--Jennifer Pitts, The University of Chicago:

“Sharp, engaging, and deeply researched, Liberalism at Large reveals the profound contradictions of liberalism: its aversion to state power and embrace of imperial might.”