

Rebecca Rehm - Biography

Rebecca Rehm is an ethics and compliance business leader who has worked and consulted successfully under DPAs and CIAs, including at Fortune Global 500 companies. Since 2017, she has been a compliance business partner at Olympus Corporation of the Americas where she supports marketing and sales in the medical device businesses. Prior to joining Olympus, she spent five years at the Ethics & Compliance Initiative, an association and research organization for ethics and compliance professionals, where she was the director of member education and certification. She is passionate about diversity and inclusion and is currently a sub-group chair of the Ethics & Compliance Initiative's Working Group on Racism, Discrimination and Abuse of Power, co-lead of AdvaMed's PRIDE Leadership Network, and a frequent speaker on diversity and inclusion. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in biology with a concentration in neuroscience from Williams College, a Master of Arts in Teaching degree from Brown University and is certified as a Leadership Professional in Ethics & Compliance.